

Supreme Court of California

JUSTICES CHAMBERS

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

December twenty-fourth,
Nineteen twenty-three.

Mr. Charles F. Lummis,
200 East Avenue 43,
Los Angeles, California.

My dear Mr. Lummis:

I am quite interested in your effort to save the old Spanish songs of the Southwest, and want a copy of "Spanish Songs of Old California" for Mrs. Waste. I enclose my check for one dollar and fifty cents for that purpose. Please send the book to the address noted: Mrs. W. H. Waste, 2222 Durant Avenue, Berkeley, California.

Very truly yours,

William H. Waste

(enclosure)

Dec. 28, 1923.

Justice Wm. H. Waste ,
Justices' Chambers,
Supreme Court of California,
San Francisco, Cal.

My dear Justice Waste:

I am very glad of your interest in the old Spanish Songs; I feel sure you will be pleased with my "First Book"-- which I forward by next mail.

The Book is already receiving so warm a welcome that it is sure I shall be able to bring out a "Second Book" next year.

Wishing you both a Happy New Year,

Sincerely Yours,
